

Engineering Technology Camp Counselor - Job Description

Idea: United is looking for enthusiastic and reliable counselors for our upcoming Engineering Technology Camp this Summer. Counselors will lead and chaperone a small, diverse group of sophomore and junior high school students at company provided housing and a technology company's headquarters in Cupertino, California. This position offers the unique opportunity to form in pacful relationships with the next generation in engineering and technology. Compensation is commensurate with education and experience.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Responsible for the organization, safety and supervision of students in their group at camp lodging, outside activities and throughout the camp
- Collaborate with Camp Director and other counselors to create a safe, fun and inclusive environment for students of diverse backgrounds
- Transportation of students from camp lodging to campus and all camp sponsored activities
- Maintain high standards of health and safety for all students and staff
- Provide regular reports to Camp Director
- Must be available July 5 through August 11, training is TBD and may occur prior to 4th of July holiday
- Adhere and provide guidance around confidentiality requirements

Qualifications/Requirements:

- At least 2 years working with students aged K-12 preferred
- Demonstrated leadership abilities
- Highly responsible and dependable
- Strong communication and organizational skills
- Elected to develop positive and constructive relationships with people of diverse backgrounds
- Interest in technological hardware and software a plus
- A strong candidate will be a team player, flexible in evolving circumstances, and eager to take on responsibilities
- CPR/First Aid certified or able to obtain certification by first day of camp
- Must be 21 years of age or older
- Must have valid drivers license
- Will be required to complete a background check