

Hoping to save some extra money before the holidays?

Participate in a 2-week ONLINE program through the Stanford GSB Behavioral lab to help you save $300!

Monday, November 28th 2016:

You will fill out an online survey on the first day. ☺

Monday, November 28th - Sunday, December 11th:

Afterwards, you will receive a daily message reminding you to track your savings over the duration of the program.

As a reward for helping us pilot this program, you will receive a $3 Amazon gift card for filling out the first study and a $5 Amazon gift card for filling out a mid-program check in survey. If you complete the program, you will be entered in a lottery where 1 in 20 people will receive a $20 Amazon gift card.

In order to participate, you must be a Stanford Student over the age of 18.
